

DSFE annual meeting 2020

Promoting multinational Nordic pharmacoepidemiologic studies

Date: 26 October 2020

Location: The Danish Cancer Society, Strandboulevarden 49, 2100 Copenhagen

09.30 - 10.00: Coffee and breakfast

10.00 - 10.15: Welcome & opening remarks, Mette Bliddal, DSFE Chair, University of Southern Denmark

10.15 - 11.00: Mette Nørgaard: Chronic immune thrombocytopenia: Establishing a multinational Nordic cohort study on a rare disease

11.00 - 11.45: Björn Pasternak: Conducting multinational Nordic studies - possibilities and pitfalls.

11.45 - 12.30: Lunch and networking

12.45 - 13.30: Oral presentation competition: 3 x 15 min presentations from submitted abstracts

13.30 - 14.00: General assembly

14.00 - 14.15: Coffee and networking

14.15 - 15.00: Jan P. Vandenbroucke: From ideas to studies: how to get ideas and sharpen them into research questions

15.00 - 15.15: Sarah Hjorth Andersen: Risk of childhood cancers after prenatal exposure to medications – a Nordic registry-based study

15.15 - 15.30: Rikke Wesselhöft: Multisite collaborations - from Norway to New York

15.30 - 15.45: Signe Sørup: Childhood morbidity and non-specific effects of vaccines in the Nordic countries

15.45 - 16.00: Closing remarks, Mette Bliddal, DSFE Chair, University of Southern Denmark